Quick Reference Travel Guide

Things to include on a Travel Authorization

TA’s are coming under more scrutiny these days, please make sure that TA’s submitted to the Office for the Academic Experience (110 Randolph Hall, Erin Blevins) for Lynne Ford’s signature are submitted 2 weeks in advance of travel and include the following (you can attach a separate page):

1. Please spell out the name of the conference rather than using the acronym and include a description of the conference (typically, the call for proposals will suffice).
2. Why are you attending the conference and what is the relevance to your position?
3. What is your role at the conference? (presenter, conference organizer, to observe and learn, etc)
4. If presenting, please attach the title of your presentation and a brief description
5. If applicable, how will share the information you learned at the conference with your colleagues at the College when you return?

Per diem meal reimbursement
• Be sure to include departure and arrival times on your reimbursement request.
• Meal receipts are not required to receive per diem.
