Finances

Ireland uses the Euro as their form of currency, so remember this when budgeting for the semester. You will not be able to purchase items abroad through US Dollars. You will be able to use your card in some locations, however exchange rates may apply.

ATMs and Banks

- ATMs in Ireland do not charge a fee, however your American bank may charge an international withdrawal fee.
- Banks in Ireland:
 - Ulster Bank, AIB, Bank of Ireland
- Ensure that your Debit or Credit card has a chip.
- The majority of places will accept cards, however be aware of the conversion rate.

Travel Notices

- Be sure to contact your bank prior to departure to alert them that you will be travelling outside of the country for a semester.

What to Budget

- At the beginning of the semester students will need to purchase items for their bedroom such as bedding, toiletries, and decorative items if desired.
- Each student will need to pay a €300 immigration fee within the first several months of arriving in Ireland.
- Students should budget $150 per week for groceries, restaurants, laundry, and miscellaneous costs. This cost can be lowered if you cook more and budget wisely.

International Phone Services

Students are required to purchase an Irish phone number upon arrival in Dublin. This can be done by purchasing an international phone or replacing the American SIM card with an Irish SIM card. We recommend purchasing a SIM card, as opposed to a cheap phone, so that you don't have to carry around two separate phones everywhere that you go.

- SIM Cards/ cheap phones will cost approximately €20 per month.

Providers

- 3 Network
- Vodaphone

Apps to Download

- WhatsApp - Great for texting/calling people that don't have Facetime/iMessages
- MyTaxi - This app is very useful when booking cabs. You can pre order a taxi, or order one when needed. The app is setup to charge your credit card directly so you won't have to carry cash around (similar to Uber).
- Google Maps - This app is extremely useful when finding the best route to take. Google Maps gives you the best routes taking car, walking, or taking public transportation.
- Dublin Bus App - This app makes taking the bus much easier! You can use it to access Real Time information that will estimate the times that your bus is due at your stop. The app also includes a Fare Calculator, Bus Timetables, and a Route Planner.

Things to Note

- There are no Apple stores in Dublin, however there are third party stores that can assist in Apple support.

Emergency Number

- In the event of an emergency, please dial 999

Transitioning to Life Abroad

Your first semester of college will be a huge transition in your life, regardless of whether or not you've spent time away from home or traveled abroad. Here are things to keep in mind before departing for your semester abroad with iCharleston!

Academics

- Your classes in Dublin will meet 2 - 4 times a week, with each class being between 1-3 hours long.
- Throughout the semester, a majority of the assignments may be smaller projects and readings for class. However, finals can be stressful as you'll have multiple essays, projects, and exams for each class. Be sure to plan ahead, and don't get behind!

Mandatory Excursions

- Classes in Dublin are experiential, so there will be multiple field trips throughout the semester.
- There will be several weekend-long excursions throughout the semester that are required. Do not make any travel plans until you have received the finalized schedule upon arrival in Dublin in August.

Residence Life

- Residents of Binary Hub are students from multiple institutions and study abroad programs. However, you will be sharing your apartment with other participants of the iCharleston program.
- There will be Student Life Assistants who live in Binary Hub and serve as a support network for you while abroad, but are also there to enforce any regulations FIE/Binary Hub may have.

- There are no maids or cleaning services while abroad, so be prepared to share cleaning duties and discuss with your roommates about how you would like to divide housework.
- There are no meal plan options in Dublin, so be prepared to shop and cook for yourself while abroad.
