Getting to CofC

• Minimum 2.6 GPA
• Minimum 12 credit hours transferred into College of Charleston
• You must meet these iCharleston program requirements during Fall semester abroad
Welcome to CofC!
Spring 2018
iCharleston → Impact

• Spring 2018/Fall 2018 Learning Contract
  • Earn a 2.000 GPA by the end of the Fall 2018 semester
  • Enroll in FYE class in Spring 2018
  • Enroll in Engl 110 during the first year
  • Enroll in at least 12 credit hours each semester
  • Meet weekly with a Peer Academic Coach (PAC)
  • Meet with Academic Advisor twice each semester
  • Attend all Strengths workshops
Strengths

• What do you do best?
• How can you be more productive?
• How can you improve your relationships?
• What makes you, you?
Peer Academic Coach (PAC)

- Weekly meetings
- Current CofC student
- Great resource for any CofC related questions
- Assistance with time management/study skills/etc
Benefits

• 78% said “I can identify ways to use my Strengths to achieve my personal goals.”
• 97% said “I feel there is someone (student, faculty or staff) at the College who cares about me.”
• 92% said “I am prepared to succeed at the College of Charleston.”
• 95% said “I have achieved something this year that I am proud of.”
Impact Scholars

- Involvement on campus
- Strengths Coaching
- Focus on the 5 areas of wellbeing
  - Purpose, Social, Physical, Community, Financial
- Opportunities
  - Work towards the Higdon Leadership certificate
  - Potential letters of recommendation
  - Resume builder
  - Cord at graduation
Questions?

Impact Office
Celia Dennison, Assistant Director for Impact Programs
Lightsey Center, B66
Email: dennisoncm@cofc.edu
Phone: 843.953.5674

Chris Pennebaker, Program Coordinator, Impact Scholars
Lightsey Center, Suite 101
Email: pennebakercc@cofc.edu
Phone: 843.953.5674