The Academic Advising and Planning Center offers the following student services:

- All advising appointments will be held virtually using Google Hangout Meets. Students with appointments will receive an email invite from their assigned academic advisor. Students are encouraged to keep this appointment. If students have internet access challenges, they should contact their academic advisor via telephone.

- Quick Question Drop-In will be offered virtually between 2-4 p.m. Monday-Friday and is staffed by a Peer Advisor. Students must make a virtual appointment through Appointment Manager. Once scheduled the Peer Advisor will send the student an invitation for a meeting through Google Hangout Meets.

- Students can also text an advising question through our Advise Me texting service. Text “AdviseMe” 85511.

Student who have not yet made their mandatory advising appointment for the spring should do so as soon as possible. Appointments can be made through Appointment Manager.
To schedule a tutoring or study skills appointment:
Use this link to make your request. You will be scheduled for a one on one tutoring or Study Skills session. You will receive an email with details about your tutor, day and time, and instructions for accessing the appointment.

To find out when/how your SI (Supplemental Instruction) sessions are held:
You will receive direct instructions from your SI leader via email and OAKS. SI sessions will continue to meet virtually on the same schedule as before break.

To find out when/how your PAC (peer academic coaching) sessions are held:
Your coach will reach out to you to schedule face to face meetings via Google Hangouts. Please watch for messages from your PAC and respond promptly.

A few additional details:
- If you need to speak to CSL staff, the quickest way to reach us is to email cslstud@cofc.edu. You may call the front desk 843.953.5635, but please note that this number will not be accessed frequently during the e-learning period.
- The google form will be checked frequently between 9 am-5 pm M-F, and tutoring and study skills appointments will be scheduled as quickly as possible upon receipt of the form. Please note that the google form will not be checked on Saturday or Sunday.
- If you have already been meeting with a CSL staff member, please check your email for instructions for continuing those meetings.
